DRUBBING FOR THE DEMOCRATS

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 16.—The Democratic party in New York state came in for a thorough drubbing last night in an address by Frank L. Young, Republican leader in the legislature, before the annual dinner of the Republican county organization.

"The Democratic party in New York state stands today absolutely discredited for its complete failure to save the state the administration which our citizens demand," he said. "On all subjects of importance there has been a condition of doubt and hesitation which has been and is discouraging and helpless. The Democratic leaders are hopelessly ineffective. Not knowing what to do, they have done nothing except to find jobs. They have created every new office conceivable in the mind of man, from confidential adviser to the comptroller to the inspector of surplus waste in the state conservation department."

POSTOFFICE ROBBERS

Boise, Ida., Feb. 16.—Self-confessed robbers, George and Harry Lester, brothers, pleaded guilty here yesterday in the federal court, before Judge Frank S. Dietrich, to the charge of dynamiting and robbing the safe in the postoffice at Kimberly, Ida., and were sentenced to serve terms in the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth, as well as fined $100 each. George Lester was given four years and Harry a two-year sentence.

The confession of the Lesters provided that they had been implicated in the robbery of "John" pulled off in the northwest. George Lester admitted he was the leader of the regiments and planned and directed the Kimberly robbery. He informed the officials that he had executed a similar robbery before, but refused to name the place. His acknowledgment of the leadership resulted in the four-year sentence. Harry Lester, his brother, said he was an ex-convict and had escaped from the Washington state penitentiary at Walla Walla after he had served part of a six-year sentence.

lic church. The priest has visited the murderers and declared they are of sound mind and subject to hallucinations.

The court would not permit the petition to be filed before it was read, as representatives of the state's attorney's office asserted that its only purpose was delay. While arguments were proceeding the Shiblowski brothers were hanged.

Jailer Davies assisted in taking the bodies of the two from the gallows before completing with the order to appear in court.

Three minutes after the Shiblowski brothers were hanged a bailiff from Supreme Court Judge McKinnley rushed into the jailer's office, summoning the jailer to the court.

Counsel for the Guelzow murderers had told the court the four were insane and asked that the execution be stopped.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—The four murderers of Fred Guelzow were hanged in the jail today. They were Ewald and Frank Shiblowski, who died together first, and Phillip Sommer and Thomas Schult, who died last, and a few minutes later. Thomas Jennings, the negro slayer of Clarence Hiller, who was to have been the gallows fifth victim, was saved, for at least, by the plea of his lawyers before the federal court that, in being forced to make thumb prints, his constitutional immunity to testify against himself had been violated.

Desperate eleven-hour efforts were made by sympathizers to save the lives of the Guelzow slayers. A Polish Catholic priest declared before Judge McKinnley in the superior court that he believed the youths were insane.

While the death march of the Shiblowski brothers was in progress, a bailiff from Judge McKinnley's court summoned Jailer Davies to court, but three minutes before the bailiff's arrival, the Shiblowski had been hanged. Davies refused to obey the summons of the superior court. Instead, Chief Deputy Peters telephoned to the judge that two of the men had been hanged and that the execution of the other two would proceed unless a formal writ prevented.

No writ was issued and Sommerling and Schultz bowed their companions on the gallows.

Representatives of the state's attorney's office resisted the attempt to stop the executions and told Judge McKinnley that the petition, alleging insanity, which, under the law, is a bar to execution, was presented only for a delay. This was denied by counsel for the condemned men and a wordy altercation occupied the minutes in which the four were being prepared for the gallows.

Judge McKinnley declined to permit the petition to be filed until it had been read. The prosecutors insisted that the petition, which was signed by Rev. Rapinski, was not in accord with the facts.

While the executions of the Guelzow murderers were taking place, Jennings' counsel was arguing before United States District Court Judge Landis on the habeas corpus writ they asked yesterday.

Judge Landis denied the petition filed for Thomas Jennings and preparations for the fifth hanging began in the jail.

Thomas Jennings, negro, the last of the five condemned men, was hanged at 12:15 p. m.

Asks Forgiveness

Chicago, Feb. 15.—Ewald Shiblowski, one of the men who is to be hanged today for the murder of Fred Guelzow, wrote to the widow of his victim last night asking forgiveness. The letter reads:

"I must die tomorrow for the murder of your husband and the father of your child. I wish to God I had never done it, and I ask you to forgive me, if you can for what I did. I had a fair trial. My lawyer did what he could, and the assistant state's attorney treated me fairly. I am guilty and before my death I ask your forgiveness for the great wrong I did. God knows that if I could live I would spend my whole life in trying to do for you and your child what I ought to do."
